Contents

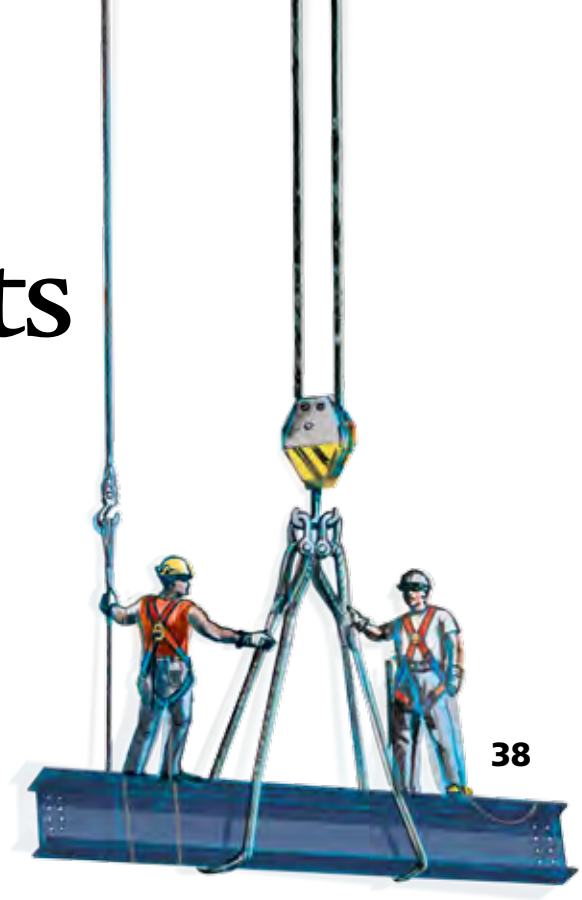
Volume 17 • Spring 2009



ON THE COVER: Vivian Manasc, of Manasc Isaac Architects Photographed by Bryce Krynski at the Calgary Water Centre

7 Executive editor's column
By Stephen Kushner

14 Joining the links
Open shop construction has new momentum with the formation of Merit Canada, leading the way in training and legislation
By Joel Thompson

20 Getting it right
The increased use of union dues for political advertising is a growing cause for concern
By Bill Stewart

26 Construction melting pot
Temporary foreign workers were once viewed with scepticism – today they provide options for Canadian construction companies
By Joel Thompson and Moritz Schmidt

32 In living colour
Building Information Modelling is helping constructors to nail the "uh-oh" moments, before they happen. A look at the new technology in action
By Jim Veenbaas

38 Redressing the balance
Legal, yet unfair, market recovery schemes favoured union firms, but Alberta's recent Bill 26 aims to level the playing field
By Bill Stewart

44 Playing Your Field
A step-by-step guide to ensuring that your firm follows best practice for maximum results on the job
By Terry Kramer and Aaron Kramer

50 Tender type
Bidding on new business is challenging in itself, but the risk of creating a non-compliant tender can create additional woes
By Ryan Kary

54 By the numbers
A roundup of the latest stats within Canadian construction

8 COVER STORY
Giving the green light
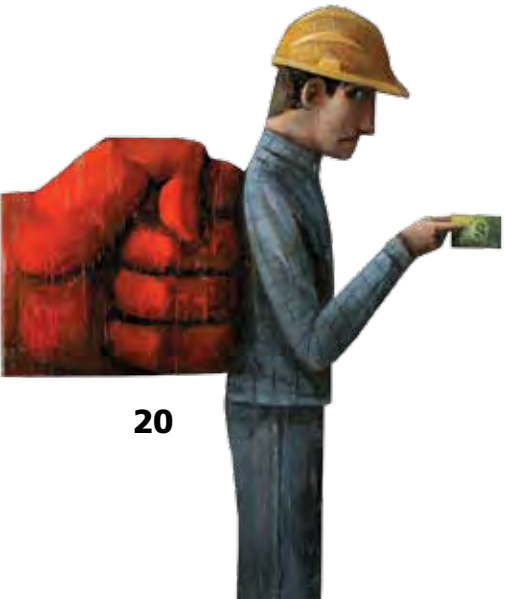
Going green has shed its cost-prohibitive tag. Discover how Alberta's construction firms are achieving eco-friendly builds without breaking the bank
By Shannon Sutherland



CLOCKWISE FROM BOTTOM: STEVE ADAMS, BRYCE KRYNSKI, KEVIN GHIGLIONE, DWIGHT ARTHUR