OPENMIND

Contents

Volume 18 • Spring 2010

6 ON THE COVER
Finding the P3 Balance
Government and contractors are working together to examine the future direction of public/private partnerships in Alberta
By Bill Stewart
Illustration by Leanne Kroll

5 Executive editor's column
By Stephen Kushner

12 Want More Business?
Ensuring a positive customer experience during all phases of a construction job will help increase your client base
By Scott Wood

16 Building the Workforce
Women are making strides in the construction industry, but there is still a long way to go before they make major inroads on job sites
By Emily Senger

20 Cash: The Lifeblood of Every Contractor
Completing jobs is the easy part, it's cash flow strategies that will make or break a contracting business
By Anthony R. Stagliano

24 The Labour Strategy That Worked
Some wise negotiating allowed Canadian Natural Resources Limited to access the best open shop and union workers from across Canada for the Horizon Oil Sands Project
By Denis Bobiy

30 Tendering Law
The search for the perfect exclusion clause
By Ryan Kary and Corbin Devlin

32 More Than Their Due
An antiquated Canadian system allows union leaders to spend dues to support partisan causes, even when members don't agree with the politics
By Bill Stewart

38 Get the Benefits
A streamlined delivery process puts open shop health and benefit plans ahead of the pack
By Joel Thompson

43 We Can Work It Out
Construction professionals, in their quest to build things, sometimes fall short in building relationships
By Lauren Pinch

46 The Last Word
The construction industry by the numbers